1. Overview

All BIBS enrollment forms, with the exception of the Direct Deposit form and voided check, must be sent to your local District Early Intervention Coordinator (EIC) for the county where the provider resides. The District will e-mail the forms to bcw.contracts@dph.ga.gov. The Direct Deposit form and voided check must be sent to gaeienroll@dxc.com. Once these forms are reviewed by the state they are forwarded to Gainwell Technologies for processing.

When enrolling in the Babies Can't Wait program for the first time, complete all applicable forms listed on the checklist.

2. Types of Forms

Q: When to use Agency forms and when to use Independent Provider forms?

A: See below:

- If a provider owns an LLC but will never have other providers enrolled under the LLC, they should use Independent Provider forms.
- If a provider owns an LLC and will have providers enrolled under the LLC (now or at some future date), they must use Agency forms.
- If a provider is enrolling under their Social Security Number, and may have other providers enrolled under them in the future, they must use Agency forms.
- If a provider is enrolling under their Social Security Number and will never have other providers enrolled under them, they should use Independent Provider forms.
