

*If you elect to receive payments electronically, all funds must be designated to one account. **Negative balances at month end will not be debited from your checking account. Negative amounts are deducted from future payments.